Announcement of the Influence of the Tohoku Pacific Ocean Earthquake

Sekisui House Ltd. (the “Company”) expresses its deepest condolences to the victims of the Tohoku Pacific Ocean Earthquake that occurred on March 11, 2011.

Damage conditions of the Sekisui House Group which have been assessed up to this point are as follows, and the impact on performance is now under investigation. The Company will make another announcement if any event that may seriously affect its performance is confirmed hereafter.

Note

1. Damage conditions

The buildings of the Company’s branches, customer centers, factories, and the Group companies’ offices in Tohoku and Kanto region have had no serious damage. In some areas, however, some infrastructure such as electricity and communications remains down.

In addition, the Company’s Tohoku factory (Shikama-cho, Kami-gun, Miyagi, Production item: a set of industrialized houses) has halted operation due to power failure, but because there is no problem with the facilities themselves, operations will be resumed when electricity is restored.

2. Safety of the employees

With regard to the safety of the employees, the safety of all but several employees has been confirmed. All members of the Company are wholeheartedly committed to the reconstruction of the disaster stricken sites.
